

Swimming Pools

Pools more than 30 centimetres deep are not allowed

Do you have a blow up or portable pool that can hold water 30cm deep?

If you do, you will need to empty and remove your pool.

Public housing tenants are not allowed to install swimming pools, including inflatable pools, that are able to be filled to a depth of 30cm or more.

Following these steps will help keep children in your neighbourhood safe.

